For every one
In this world
Yes all of us

I want a world
Don't care how long it takes us
We get rit
Of all worlds problems

Every single one
For every single soul
For world peace and for
A world with out horror

Peace for every one
Because you all deserve it
Peace for every one
Peace world-wide

Hard to find solutions
But they're out there
Twist the brain
And communicate

All good people
From all lands world-wide
Make a plan
The last fight for peace

For every single one
The more peace we have world- wide
The less we
Get horror here there and soon there
